the north and south, it enjoys natural light throughout the day.

On the ground floor, we have a large living room, equipped with a fireplace, perfect for cozy evenings, which extends over the dining room and still connects to the kitchen, fully equipped and very functional.

In the hallway, we have a large pantry, very practical and with plenty of storage space, a bathroom, equipped with shower, with window, and access to the fantastic rear patio.

The entire ground floor is fluid and allows for easy circulation.

The 3 bedrooms are on the upper floor, as well as two more bathrooms, one of which is inserted in a bedroom (suite). All of them of good dimensions, and equipped with built-in wardrobes. The suite also has a balcony to relax while enjoying the open view.

For your convenience, there is a garage to park your car or to use as a storage room if you need additional storage space.

Situated in a quiet location, but with easy access to all the amenities of the city of Lagos, which is less than 5 minutes away by car, as well as the shopping center just a few meters from the urbanization, this property is ideal for those looking to live in a calm but practical environment.

This could be the home your family needs! Book your visit now. Don't waste any time!
